List 99 Check Guidance

What is a List 99 Check?

A List 99 Check is a search against the children's barred list for which the result is sent to the client within 24 hours of requesting. This check is carried out for educational settings to establish whether an applicant is barred from working or volunteering with children.

What does a List 99 Check cover?

The barred list database includes details of people who are barred from applying for or working in regulated activity with children (e.g. teaching children or looking after children). The barred list comprises:

- People on the England and Wales children's barred list, kept by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (SVGA) 2006
- People on the Northern Ireland children's barred list, kept by the DBS under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Order (SVGO) 2007

Who is entitled to a List 99 Check?

To request a List 99 Check, you must be an educational provider, nursery, local council or local authority.

The check enables an applicant to start working/volunteering before a full check is completed so long as they are supervised at all times.
